Description:

FROM THE NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER When Mary Lou Quinlan's beloved mother, Mary Finlayson, dies, her family is bereft—until Mary Lou searches for her mother's God Box, her private cache of notes to God on behalf of family, friends and strangers. To Mary Lou's amazement, she finds not one but ten boxes stuffed with hundreds of tiny petitions that spanned the last twenty years of her mother's life. Note by note, Mary Lou unearths a treasure of her mother's wishes and worries and insight. Mary asked God for everything from the right flooring for her daughter's home to a cure for her own blood cancer. Her requests, penned on scraps of paper, were presented without expectation—the ultimate expression of letting go. Follow Mary Lou's emotional journey as she uncovers her mother's innermost thoughts—nostalgic, surprising and even a bit shocking. As she recalls life with the woman who was her best friend, Mary Lou also discovers her own more empathetic, engaged self—the woman her mother had believed in all along. Poignantly written and beautifully designed, The God Box is a gift for every mother, every daughter, every person who, regardless of beliefs, trusts in the permanence of love and the power of family.

I read this book in two sections over a weekend, and loved every minute. It's a wonderful love story between a mother and her daughter—how refreshing is that??? There are many things I look for when I'm reading a story about someone's life—honesty and truth are at the top of the list. When Mary Lou writes about her great love for her Mother—I know it is counter-cultural these days—but she speaks the truth and it is beautiful to witness. The other part I appreciated was Mary Lou's honesty about her own self and her own emotional growth. When she realized she was changing and growing, after her Mother's death, it was poignant and touching. Upon finishing the book, I decided what many will decide to do as well: I started my own God Box and it sits on the desk in my bedroom. I'm not a worrier but there are always concerns in life so I put the current concern on a little piece of paper and slipped it into my God Box with a short prayer. By taking this small action, I immediately felt better and lighter. Mary Lou is one of the most talented human beings I have ever met—her Mother would be (is!) proud—she is a marvelous writer and a fine actress as well. I'm looking forward to the live performance of The God Box theatre piece when it returns to New York City. Brava!
